~4 - 4.5 / 5 Why are Kazehaya and Sawako so cute together? They are just so adorable, it shouldn't be possible. But it is and I love it. Okay, so after thinking about this one for a while, I'm not as excited about it as I originally was, but just looking through it makes me excited all over again. It's mostly Kazehaya and Sawako, especially together, that makes me feel this way, I'm sure. I just can't stop myself from fangirling over this series every time. Most of the volume is about Kazehaya and Sawako getting used to being around each other romantically, and it's super cute. Sawako is still unsure of her relationship with most people, and feels that it would be bothersome if she were to call or text Kazehaya at anytime, but Ayane and Chizu convince her otherwise. And then Kazehaya walks Sawako home after school, and there's a cute incident where they hold hands. Kazehaya was not at his cutest in this volume, which was a bit disappointing (because I love him), but he's still sweet and awkward around her. Sawako, though, was so sweet and like her normal awkward, but she got a bit brave a few times around Kazehaya, which was nice to see. It's good that she's finally gaining some confidence. On their walk, they run into Sawako's mom. Sawako hasn't told her parents about having a boyfriend, but her mom is excited and really nice to Kazehaya. She invited Kazehaya over for dinner, where Sawako's dad is very tense. He freaks out over meeting and finding out about Kazehaya, and tries to find something bad about him, and is disappointed when he doesn't. Overall it was really nice, and I'm excited to watch their relationship develop even more.
