Customer Reviews

I have two teenaged granddaughters who were thrilled with this newest Chicken Soup for teens. One of them carries it wherever she goes so she can read another story when she has a few minutes. And then she tells me all about the chapters that interest her or have a confusing message that she wants to talk to me about. I enjoy the stories as much as she does!

There are so many Chicken Soup books out there, but this one is great because it is just for teenagers. The book is full of 101 short stories (all about 2-3 pages) all from real teenagers. They are stories categorized as: Friendship, Life Lessons, Liking Yourself, Love and Relationships,

Family Times, Tough Times, Taking a Stand, Giving and Getting Kindness, Funny Moments, and Setting and Reaching Your Goals. I enjoyed reading the stories and reminiscing about my own teenage years, both the happy and sad times. I think it would be a great book for any teenager, especially as a great break from school work or just to see that they are not alone in their own teenage drama.

I loved the inspirational quotes however the stories mostly had the same theme. For the stories that were unique, they were spectacularly written and were captivating. Overall a good read but just not for me.

I ordered this book for my 16 year old niece. She thoroughly enjoyed it and it helped explain some confusing times for her.

The teen who received it as a gift said it keeps her laughing ^f! I am glad to bring Her Joy with 'Chicken Soup' ^,, ^f

Purchased these for my confirmation students and eighth grade graduates. They really enjoyed the books, and the stories that seemed especially chosen for them.
