Just as Paul led the Galatians through a radical cultural change to expand their view of God, themselves, and the church's mission, Christians are challenged to do the same today. Elaine Heath is a visionary and a wonderful leader of the Church in the 21st century. This book is a call to the church to take heart and to be brave as God brings the church into new times. Based on a faithful reading of Galatians, Dr. Heath, now the Dean of the Duke Divinity School, calls us to listen faithfully to the Holy Spirit and to make a path for new things while cherishing the old. It may be her very best book!

One of the gifts of Dr. Heath's work is the challenge to allow God to be God. The power of the early church is that they believed God would do more than they could understand or imagine. This opened them to a holy boldness that the church today fears. Lots of excellent insights and questions are opened in reading this text.

I have already recommended this book to multiple people. The content is great for the church, and also for those outside the church. It is written in a clear and easy to follow way.
