Frida Kahlo And Diego Rivera: Their Lives And Ideas, 24 Activities (For Kids Series)

Synopsis

Children will find artistic inspiration as they learn about iconic artists Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera in these imaginative and colorful activities. The art and ideas of Kahlo and Rivera are explored through projects that include painting a self-portrait Kahlo-style, creating a mural with a social message like Rivera, making a Day of the Dead ofrenda, and crafting an Olmec head carving. Vibrant illustrations throughout the book include Rivera's murals and paintings, Kahlo's dreamscapes and self-portraits, pre-Columbian art and Mexican folk art, as well as many photographs of the two artists. Children will learn that art is more than just pretty pictures; it can be a way to express the artist's innermost feelings, a source of everyday joy and fun, an outlet for political ideas, and an expression of hope for a better world. Sidebars will introduce children to other Mexican artists and other notable female artists. A time line, listings of art museums and places where Kahlo and Rivera's art can be viewed, and a list of relevant websites complete this cross-cultural art experience.

Customer Reviews

Great resource for teaching about Latin American artists and culture. The project ideas were original and the background information was very helpful.

The book keep me coming back. It was funny, educational and I love the fabulous pictures. I also loved how determine Frida and Diego were. They did not let ANYTHING get in the way of the goals they wanted to achieve! The activity for children to do were interesting and plentiful,

I loved the activities and the stories around it. Wonderful book that can be used at different levels of Spanish.

love it!
