Customer Reviews

My daughter (3 years old) is a huge Veggie Tales fan. I wanted to start praying with her at night but was a little unsure how to go about it. I got this book and I'm so glad I did. The prayers all rhyme and are grouped by category: bedtime prayers, gratefulness, blessings for dinnertime, etc. There are six or more prayers on each two-page spread, which makes this book a hefty read. What I do is, read one prayer from each page to shorten it up. When my little girl has a longer attention span, I'll read each prayer to her. I like that this book has us praying together and that the prayers are short and simple enough for her to understand. I would definitely recommend this book---I've yet to be disappointed by a Veggie Tales book!

My son is 5 and he enjoys reading this before bed. It's a great way to teach your child different things to pray for. The book is sectioned by topic and each topic is about 2 pages. Also the board book makes it very durable as my son likes to take his books to bed with him.

This book is fantastic! It has so many sweet prayers that rhyme, and they are categorized by type of prayer (morning, bedtime, feelings, etc.). My son looks at this book every morning while I get ready for work, and it has held up well despite how rough he is with it!

Adorable prayer book for young children.

So cute, love the Veggie Tales and all they represent. The prayers really do just about cover every thing! And are easy to read and understand for the little ones.

This is a really good book for teaching little ones to pray and enjoy talking to God. The book is of sturdy construction, which is a plus.

Love this book! The cover is soft/puffy like and the pages are cardboard-ish. I have a feeling this book will stay with us for a while.

we love this book and read it every day. my son loves all the diff pics and i love the short stories that include scripture
